

Student Learning Web at a glance:

- ✓ Students have access to subject details, coursework and reporting online
 - ✓ Parents can view their children's progress online
 - ✓ Teachers have access to subject details, coursework and student lists online
 - ✓ Student Reporting online
- Students can access online all of the subject/unit details, coursework and personal development reports related to their learning profile.
 - A parent can access online the subject information, coursework and personal development reports related to their children's learning profile.
 - Teachers can access online all of the subject information, coursework and student lists associated with the subjects they teach.
 - Teachers can edit/update their units/subjects as well as attaching learning and assessment activities for students to access.
 - The individual student personal development reports are fully customisable to meet the school reporting requirements
 - Once updated by the teacher students and their parents are able to immediately view the updated report online.

